From the President's Notebook

By the time you are reading this newsletter, September will be over half over. I am checking my fall MUST do list and realize if I work on my list daily, I should have all items completed by November 1st. Some items on my list alert me to remind all of you, once again, that October 1st is that magical date for all forms related to your hours and your projects to be completed and sent to Jeremy Erickson, Horticulture Educator, UW Extension Wood County. Contact information is at the end of this article.

Forms to fill in your 2016 volunteer service hours and your continuing education hours will be available at the September meetings. Just a reminder, that in order for members to be re-certified for 2017, 10 CE hours and 24 VS hours are required, and the volunteer forms need to be turned in by October 1st. Wood County UW Extension must fill out a county form and report the WCMGV 2016 hours to the State office in early October. On the volunteer form, include the hours accumulated during the period of October 1st 2015 through September 30, 2016. In addition to the volunteer hour form, all other forms regarding your project and/or grants are also to be completed and sent to the UW Extension office by October 1st. Please feel free to contact me with any questions. Refer to the July newsletter for more details about hours. If anyone is short of hours please contact me. There are numerous project leaders that would be happy to have you earn hours by working with them on their sites. If you need education hours, let me know as there are numerous ways to earn those hours as well. Please do not wait until the end of September to try and come up with ideas for your required hours!

October 15 is our fall seminar. A description of the topics and the presenters is in the newsletter. Be sure to sign up soon for this seminar as seating is limited at the UW Marshfield campus site. You may call UW Extension to sign-up for the seminar. If you love to bake, be sure to sign up to bring your favorite recipe to share at the seminar refreshment/coffee break. Sign-up sheets will be at the September meetings.

Thanks so much to the WCMGVs who worked at the fair on August 30, helping the judges with Junior Fair Judging of Dept. 14J-Plant/Soil Science & 15 J-Flowers/Houseplants in the Fairgrounds John C. Lang Building. WCMGV help was greatly appreciated by the building/Dept. supervisors and judges. The hours for this event would be Youth Education on your Volunteer Service Hours Sheet.

Attention all WCMGV members: the Board of Directors will have two vacant positions to be filled in 2017. The two positions are for a director from North Wood County area and a Director from South Wood County area to serve on the BOD. This is an opportunity to learn more about the WCMGVA operations and provide support to the organization as well as earn volunteers hours. The BOD meets quarterly each year for about 3 hours each meeting. For more information and/or to submit your name as an interested candidate for either position, please contact Ruth Cline. The elections take place in November 2016 with the positions starting January 1st, 2017.

Calling all project leaders with brochure holders: I need a photo of your gardens showing the brochure holder in place to send to Susan Mahr, UW Extension-Madison. Thanks to the project leaders who have already sent me a photo. They have been e-mailed to Susan. Please e-mail me one photo ASAP.

Thanks very much!

See you all at the September meeting!

Ruth Cline

Peace came to me when I began to appreciate the color of the world,
the sound of laughter,
the miracle of changing seasons.
When I began to hear the affirmations of beauty in music, and to enjoy the comforts

of hot tea by the fire.

University of Wisconsin-Extension

By becoming a Master Gardener Volunteer you become a representative of the University of Wisconsin-System and assist UW-Extension educators with scholarly community programs relating to horticulture and the environment. You DON'T need to know everything about gardening — you'll learn more and more as you participate in the program. You DO need to have an interest in learning and giving back to your community by working with your UW-Extension office to deliver timely research based information.

Being a Master Gardener

Being a Master Gardener is about becoming a VOLUNTEER with the University of Wisconsin-Extension to help educate the public about gardening and natural resources. It's not about knowing everything about gardening. It's about learning to ask the right questions and knowing how to look up information from appropriate resources. Being a Master Gardener is about helping deliver meaningful community programs to improve the well-being of individuals and communities, to protect natural resources, and to help keep fresh fruits and vegetables on the table. It's about working in tandem with UW-Extension staff and other volunteers to make a difference in the places we live, learn, and work.

Master Gardener Volunteers assist their local university extension educators address identified community needs, such as:

- Increasing food security
 - Creating safe greenspaces
 - Beautification projects in downtowns and parks
 - Garden therapy programs with seniors to maintain their physical and mental health
 - School garden programs to promote science awareness in kids
 - Display gardens to protect pollinators, combat invasives, and encourage gardening
 - Answering gardening questions, using the internet in addition to the phone and face-to-face
 - Facilitate gardening projects at schools, libraries, and other public community sites
 - Use gardening to teach life skills to the incarcerated
- And much more

2016 Master Gardener Scholarship Awarded

On Thursday, September 8th, I attended the annual scholarship breakfast at MSTC to witness our Wood County Master Gardener Volunteer scholarship of $500 awarded to Kyle Wildenberg of Vesper. Kyle is a second year student and plans to graduate in December with his Urban Forestry degree.

Kyle is a full time student, is a graduate of Auburndale High School, and has been interested in forestry since childhood. One teacher in particular made the decision easy to pursue Urban Forestry. That teacher is Mark Cournoyer, who teaches at Auburndale. Kyle particularly likes the ground responsibilities of tree maintenance, especially the machinery.

Kyle plans to stay in the area, and would like to focus on landscaping and tree care. His dream job would be a position with the Wood County Parks Department.

September Garden Guide

from Portage County Master Gardeners Volunteers

- Allowing September rose blooms to stay on plants aids in winter protection. Watch for black spot on roses and remove infected leaves.
- Lift gladiolus corms when leaves begin to brown. Dry in sun a few days.
- Divide most perennials except asters and mums, which haven't bloomed.
- Divide and replant peony roots. Avoid planting too deeply.
- Bring coleus, geranium, caladium and begonias indoors.
- Place amaryllis in cool basement for a 3-month rest period.
- To set buds, Christmas cacti require a rest period and cool nights (55 degrees.)
- Sow snapdragons, cornflowers and other hardy annuals a few weeks before the first frost date. Mark where planted to avoid damaging seedlings in spring.
- Carefully inspect spring flowering bulbs before planting. Discard soft bulbs.
- Remove newly set tomatoes, blossoms and new growth five weeks before expected frost because they won't have time to mature.
- Sow annual ryegrass or oats for winter cover and green manure in beds that won't be planted until late in spring. Keep watered.
- Remove all weeds from garden before they go to seed.
- Pinch out the growing points at the top of Brussels sprout stems so bottom sprouts will reach maturity.
- Watch for early frosts. Cover the garden when frost is predicted to obtain up to another month of growth. Water plants well for greater frost protection and maximum growth.
- Cut back perennials after frost.
- Dig and pot parsley, chives and tender herbs for transfer indoors to sunny window.
- For better keeping, harvest carrots, beets and turnips before first frost kills foliage.
- Gather squash, pumpkins and gourds when ripe and before frost damage. Leave 2-inch stem on vegetable for better storage.
- Clear garden beds immediately after harvest. Destroy any diseased plants by burning, composting in a hot pile or sealing in container for disposal.
- Early September is the latest time to plant spring-flowering shrubs.
- Aerate lawn when temperature is 60-70 degrees.
- Stop planting evergreens by mid-September.
- Harvest pears when light green. Separate from branch with slight twisting motion.
- Harvest grapes. Fertilize with one-cup bone meal per plant.
- Harvest apples. Rake leaves and fallen fruit from apple trees to control disease and inspect problems next year. Be careful not to injure long-lived fruiting spurs when harvesting.
- Cut out spent raspberry and blackberry canes after fruiting.

Project Brochure Holders

In 2016 Project leaders received a brochure holder to place in their respective WCMGV project gardens throughout Wood County and borders. These holders are to hold various brochures and horticulture related information available from UW Extension in the Horticulture area. Project leaders may wish to add information about their gardens such as a list of plants, self-guided tour guide of their site, or other pertinent information about the WCMGV Association. Project leaders may decorate their brochure holder themselves or if they wish artwork to be created by others, please contact Ruth Cline. The funding for these brochures holders was from a grant received from WIMGA. In order to qualify for additional educational grants; photos of the holders in the gardens and a story of how we utilized the grant funds is required to be submitted to WIMGA. If you have a brochure holder and have not installed it in your garden it is not too late in the season to do this.
